2021 READING CHALLENGE

Welcome to my 2021 Reading Challenge, I decided to include this downloadable document in case you wanted to join along, I've included a over 30 Prompts which are listed below, as well as some extra spaces at the bottom of this document in case you would like to add some extra ones for your own reading challenge.

Rules: There really are no rules, you do it however it suits you. My idea was that you don't need 1 book per prompt, if you have a book that suits more than one feel free to tick them all off.

This is supposed to be fun, so if you find that you don't tick them all off by the end of the year that's okay, or if a particular prompt or genre isn't for you then don't feel the need to read something to tick that prompt off.
